

WASHINGTON MYSTIC READY TO REVEAL SECRETS OF ALL THE ANCIENT RELIGIONS

WILL UNFOLD WONDERS OF OTHER PLANES

Modern Crusader Plans to Show It Is Within the Range of Human Power to Cure Many Diseases by Latent Forces Within Us and to Prolong Our Lives Many Spans—May Control Other Spirits.

By VIRGINIA STUART.

THE secrets of the ancient wisdom are to be unfolded. The wonders of the Magi are to be known. The occult powers of the universe are to be gradually made clear to the human race.

And the marvelous science which has come down in hidden brotherhoods since the beginning of time, is to be taught to the children of men—for the age has come when the vast knowledge and power concealed in man and nature are to be used.

A Washington adept, or master of occult science, is to be one of the first teachers to open the way. This is Edward H. Young, who has knowledge of the Magi, one of the oldest fraternities in the world, a fraternity born long before man had a written history and whose priests were those sent to greet the Infant Christ.

Mr. Young is also an ardent follower of Abdul Baha, and will preach the teachings of the Persian prophet along with his explanation of the forces of the secret powers of nature.

KNOWN TO OCCULTS.

His name is known in the innermost circles of the occult brotherhoods, he insists, and he is now delegated to go forth and teach to the world the strange truths that have been hidden under symbols for ages and have been thought to be fairy myths.

The order of the Magi exists today as it did twenty thousand years ago, and it has a few initiates in almost every country in the world, banded together by a common knowledge which their wondrous spiritual powers have drawn from the universe.

They understand the laws of the operations of spirit in matter and of the cosmic universe. They are familiar with the signs to be read in the stars and they have control over many spirits of the unseen world.

They possess the secrets of magic by which the unknown laws of nature can be called upon for seeming miracles. But the magic they practice is the White Magic of good to their fellow-men, while to the Black Magicians is left the dark powers which unfortunately can be called upon for the doing of evil.

Those who have been initiated have passed out into the "Unseen Etherial" world in their astral or spirit body and have learned the great worlds of creatures, high and low, which surrounds us on every side. All these things have hitherto been known only in secret to the Inner Circle of Esoterics, but now they are to be made known to the outer world or Exoterics.

Our means by which we will bring it out is the teaching of Bahaim, which is a modern unfolding of ancient wisdom, a continuation of the revelations made in different ages of the truths and powers of the Omnipotent and the invisible worlds surrounding us.

CONTAINED IN BIBLES.

In these occult circles have been the most wonderful men of their ages, men like Paracelsus, Bacon, Apollonius of Tyana, the Hindu Mystics, the Magicians of Egypt, the Wise Men of Chaldea, the great teachers of all nations, all times and all people—the men who fashioned the Sphinx, who built cities before Abraham was born, who read the stars when man began to be conscious of his own spirit.

Occultism is contained in the bibles of all nations. And the Kabala of the Jews, the Zend-Avesta of the Persians, the Vedas of the Hindus, the Old and New Testaments are all full of symbology, but their meaning is as yet hidden.

Mr. Young will begin his work in Washington and then go to almost every part of the world. That the time has come for this he is convinced; before his death a few weeks ago, Abdul Baha appointed Mr. Young to start on a mission.

"The schools of the ancient mysteries and the great religions of the world are all connected," he explained. "The temples of the Christians, Hebrews and Egypt-tians have all a common form. This was the outer court, the inner court and the holy of holies.

The great temple, the pyramid of Gizah, is a structure built thousands of years ago under Divine guidance, and it embodies many wonderful truths. Within it is the secret of the squaring of the circle, the weight of the earth, the distance of the earth from the sun, the orientation of the earth, the geographical center of the globe, the epochraphal portrayal of the world's history, a calendar and other truths portrayed by symbols understood alone by the initiate.

passed down among the Jews for so many ages that its origin is lost in the mists of time. Another is the meaning of the "fish-symbol," so often found amid the chapels of the early Christian catacombs in Rome. The ideas of the alchemists of the fifteenth century have passed down to the present day. And those who understand can read the connection in the occult symbolic picture in which the two pillars have the "J" and the "B" on their face.

"Adepts know by inner enlightenment the secrets and truths of the cosmic world, the nature of man, the laws of nature, of this planet and the spirit world, the powers that govern the different regions of the uni-

INVISIBLE SELF RULES BRAIN AND IS IMMORTAL, SAYS M. FLAMMARION, NOTED FRENCH SAVANT

THERE exists in the human being an element independent of the material senses, a personal mental principle, which thinks, wills, acts, which manifests itself at a distance, which sees without eyes, hears without ears, discovers the future before it exists, and reveals unknown facts. . . . The spirit overrules the body; the atoms do not govern, they are governed. An invisible thinking force governs worlds and atoms. Matter obeys.

Thus, to "establish the positive proofs of survival" is the aim of M. Camille Flammarion, the French astronomer, in his book, "Death and Its Mystery," says the London Daily Mail.

M. Flammarion says the brain is undeniably associated with all our thoughts, but it is not the author of these thoughts; it is only the instrument.

"If I wish to lift my arm, if I wish to take an oath, if I deliberate, it is my spirit which acts. The cause of the action is in it and not in the nervous and muscular system which obeys it automatically. It is our spirit which thinks, wills, loves, decides. It is not our molecular cerebral system."

Familiar instances—and some new—of second sight and somnamb-bulistic sight are given in abundance. M. Flammarion himself knew a girl of twenty who, "without knowing anything about it, often got up during the night and continued in complete darkness some work begun during the day, either dressmaking or embroidery."

Some may find this a startling statement:

"Telepathy (communication between minds, independently of the recognized channels of sense) has more foundation, a more universal and solid base than any religion."

"The quite modern invention of wireless telegraphy (and now that of the wireless telephone) helps us to understand the method of transmission of thought at a distance."

The great astronomer indeed visualizes the fact of telepathy as indicating the "possibility of a sort of radiation of the human consciousness, from one star to another, by means of specially subtle waves."

He sums up his evidence in the declaration that the "transmission of thought is as certain as the transmission of heat, light, electricity and solar magnetism."

"Future events can undoubtedly be seen in advance, and with great exactness."

ADEPT OCCULT CLAIMS HE IS MAGI PRIEST

verse and that by the wonderful powers latent within him, powers hidden, yet full of miraculous strength, man is a "little lower than the Angels."

It will be my duty to unfold this hidden, occult, mystic, ancient knowledge to the world of today.

"This is the commencement of a new age and the end of an age which will end in a great disaster by which many millions will be destroyed, but which will finally culminate then in a most glorious, spiritual world."

"For hundreds of years men have laughed at the 'superstitions' of the middle ages and the ancient world. That is only modern ignorance. The philosopher's stone is a fact—that the baser metals can be transmuted into gold is a fact which has been known, but hidden for centuries. It is within the range of human power to cure most diseases by the latent force within; to prolong human life many spans; to control the spirits which surround us in the next plane; to visit the invisible worlds of the cosmic universe; to read the great races, events and history of the world's evolution from the time it was chaos up through its life long ago; to see the human race as it evolved from the first protoplasm, from the mineral, the vegetable, and the animal kingdoms, up to man as he is today."

NATURE'S LAWS HIDDEN.

Occult science has told us that man first corresponded to a lower form of life, that he came up as though from the fish, from the four-footed beast, that he was first bi-sexual or the two sexes in one, that at first he had a third eye, and many organs now vanishing from disuse. The glands of the body, whose use is now unknown to science, such as the pineal gland in the brain, were once most important organs to the race in its infancy on this globe. Modern science is every day making some discovery which proves the truth of facts known to occultists for thousands of years.

"The power of God has been manifested in different ages in different great men. Buddha, Mahomet, Abraham, Confucius were all enlightened in different degrees by the great spirit of the God who rules this earth. Christ was a manifestation of the supreme absolute—or Triune God. The Bahai religion is a new dispensation which is to carry out a new cycle of religious truths."

"I believe that the great Persian, Baha O'llah, who died a few years ago, was a manifestation of divinity for this age. This faith I will preach and teach the world over—and I am ready to speak for all those who wish to hear."

"But I am also an initiate, a member of an occult fraternity whose knowledge of the wondrous laws of nature, laws hidden for thousands of years, it is deemed wise to now begin to proclaim to the world."

"I will wear the robes of my order, that of the Magi, that is covered with symbols which only those of the inner circle can understand. These symbolic truths were known to the early Christians—St. Paul was an initiate and so was St. John."

"The time has come to do away with war, with prejudices of all kinds, with hatreds of nation against nation, for universal peace, for a universal language, for the education of all, for the brotherhood of man, for the union of science and religion, and the full participation of woman in every activity of life."

Mr. Young is a Washington man, who has been actively identified with religious movements and uplift work here for years, and has become well known upon the lecture platform on occult and mystical subjects, particularly his explanations of the Bahai teachings. This he has made his life study.

He believes that the race is ready for this teaching, hungry for the new truths, and is ever ready himself to instruct those desiring knowledge. Is the world to see a new era of spiritual and intellectual power? Perhaps so. If the secrets of the misty past are to be unveiled, if the opening wedge is to be this work of a Washington man, strange things and many wonders can be predicted for the coming ages.
